Rank Needs and Identify Preferred Learning Methods

In the section below, please do two things: (1) identify the three areas in which you most want or need to develop and (2) identify the learning method that would best help you to acquire those areas of skill and knowledge.

First, please identify the three areas in which you would like to gain more skills and knowledge by filling in the ASK Standard number in each of the questions below (please select only one standard and one learning method per line):
