This scholarship is intended for grad students or new professionals who are unable to attend Annual Convention due to financial or other reasons. ### Flat-Rate Scholarship

A qualified candidate must:

- Be a current graduate student (Masters or Doctoral) or in the first 1-5 years of their professional role at the time of the 2025 Annual Convention.
- Plan to attend the 2025 Annual Convention February 16-19, 2025 in Long Beach, California.

This scholarship is intended to cover other financial needs associated with Convention other than registration (for example hotel, meals, airfare etc.) as we know that institutions might only fund certain parts of attendance.
